

Funeral Guidelines

"(from the earth) We have created you. And into it We shall return you. And from is We shall bring you out once again"(20:55)

كل نفس ذائقة الموت

‘Every soul shall have a taste of death. (3:185)

Death is inevitable and unpredictable and no one knows when and where it will occur. Every Muslim should always be ready to leave this world and meet the Creator. The Cemetery’s significant purpose derives from its formal capacity to evoke or establish memory of death, to remind the living of reminder to manifest that this world is not our home. Devaluation of all things accentuating the temporal life is the starting point for a Muslim, embracing that the life of the body is not a real life, and the negation of this life is the beginning rather than the end. Provide an exclusive burial place for Muslim community in accordance with Quran and Sunnat Ahlu Albait (AS) Al-Hamdu Lillah, Alrasool Islamic Center has necessary arrangements for the final journey. Islam is the only religion that explains death in full detail, how it happens, and what Muslims should do before, during, and after the death of a Muslim. Death is simply a transition state from one world to another, as birth is. No one knows when and where he will die or knows how. This is a brief guideline to prepare our community for this inevitable unpredictable moment.
